About damn!escape

The Band with a mouse

damn!escape deliver their unique blend of Kickass-Rock from northern Germany. With their loud, energetic style four German guys have created a RocknRoll wall of sound delivered powerfully to the listener. damn!escape serve up a mix of harder, shredding rock songs and thrilling rock ballads guaranteed to provoke the most positive of emotions of its listeners.

The name damn!escape came about from a resident mouse found in the guys first rehearsal room which took a liking to the boys' instruments before frequently escaping them, hence the phrase 'Damn, it escaped !' later shortened to damn!escape.
